

THIS JUST IN

Perfect Floors Celebrates 15 Years

On July 25 Perfect Floors celebrated its 15-year anniversary serving the Rochester area. Located in Rochester Hills, the company is committed to offering excellent flooring service and a complete showroom to make your flooring selections.

John Williams, owner, has been in the Rochester area for 22 years and understands how important it is to support local businesses. Williams and several members of his staff have moved to the Rochester area and their children attend local schools.

"After working in Rochester Hills at the start of my career, I moved my entire family here and many of my staff have done the same," said Williams.

From L to R: Tony Slatin, Mike Williams, Craig Colpean, John Williams and Matt Franges.

Perfect Floors offers clients custom flooring, carpet, wood, laminate and much more in a number of styles and also keeps up with current trends. Being one of the top flooring stores in the metro area allows Perfect Floors the opportunity to offer the best pricing on many items.

What sets Perfect

Floors apart from the rest is their experienced management, sales and installation.

"Experience is the number one reason people choose Perfect Floors," said Williams. "What surprises people is that our prices are lower too."

Perfect Floors credits the community's support for their 15 years in the area. "We do business the right way and our customers know that and keep coming back," said Williams. "Most of our business is repeat and referrals."

Perfect Floors is located at 1015 John R Road in Rochester Hills at the corner of Avon and John R. For more information, call 248-650-5199 or visit www.perfectfloorsinc.com.